

Journey along the river Ganga Northern India, October 2026

A journey through northern India,
from Uttarkashi to Kashi,
along the sacred river
Mother Ganga.
We will explore the movement of its waters, tracing them back to their source in the Himalayas, before descending along its banks, rich in history and spirituality.

From October 5th to 23th, 2026

Come explore the majestic Himalayan mountains and the fertile plains of the Ganga river.
Taste the rich, spicy flavors of Indian cuisine and experience
its depth and diversity through its ancient culture.

The Indian experience invites us to change our perspective and embrace a new freedom:
an inner and outer journey through Eastern wisdom traditions.

We will also take part in a humanitarian initiative.

Carefully selected places, chosen for their beauty and spirit:

- Dehradun, the city of love, a gateway to Buddhist wisdom,
- Mussoorie, the Queen of the Hills,
- Uttarkashi, a land devoted to Shiva
- Gangotri, home of the divine Ganga and a source of spiritual purity,
- Rishikesh, the world capital of yoga,
- Haridwar, the gateway to the Gods, a sacred Hindu city where the Ganga enters the plains
- Varanasi, an eternal, ancient and mystical city of light and liberation,
- Prayagraj, the sacred confluence of three rivers.

A small group, for a meaningful human experience,
with two complementary guides:

- Frédéric, the organizer & Ayurveda practitioner
- Gaurav, a passionate environmentalist and your local guide

Together, they help you, discover India from within.
